BEAUTY

BOTANICAL HAND PROTECTOR

In the pursuit of ultimate beauty, many of us don't think twice about investing in skin care products for our face. Our daily regimens often overlook the importance of caring for our hands, an area of the body that can prove unforgiving in revealing our true age. To help give your hands the attention they deserve, NHT Global has an ultra-moisturizing solution to support luminous, younger looking hands.

NHT GLOBAL'S BOTANICAL HAND PROTECTOR is an ultra-buttery hand cream that absorbs easily into the skin to bring you intensive hydration. This proprietary formula features the perfect combination of renewing botanicals and mighty antioxidants that work together to restore velvety softness to skin while also protecting against the elements. Infused with a hint of vanilla, Botanical Hand Protector indulges your senses and nourishes the skin throughout the day.

KEY INGREDIENTS

Botanical Hand Protector tackles renewal and protection in a single formula to deliver soft and nourished hands after just one use. The renewal complex helps replenish moisture and softness to skin while an arsenal of powerful antioxidants protects against environmental pollutants.

RENEWAL COMPLEX

Replenishes skin with exotic oils and natural botanicals to support undeniably soft, beautiful skin.

ANTIOXIDANT PROTECTION

Provides nutrients that help shield against the effects of environmental toxins and protect skin against further damage.
